

Gendai Reiki Ho Official Manual Distribution System

May 1, 2017

- 1) Gendai Reiki Ho Official Manuals have been revised many times and completed in April 2012 since the very first Essential Edition published in 2000. All older manuals are discontinued.
- 2) The official manuals are not sold on the market, they are sold solely to Gendai Reiki masters for teaching Gendai Reiki Ho correctly. Gendai Reiki masters who teach different types of Reiki will not be able to purchase the official manuals.
- 3) The PDF manuals were once sold but it resulted in being copied, altered, and sold on the auction sites. Because of this, we no longer provide the PDF manuals, but we sell printed manuals only. The same applies to the official manuals in international languages.
- 4) Gendai Reiki Ho must be taught with the same manuals in the same way anywhere in the world. The most common seal of Japan, Paulownia Seals, has been added on the front and back covers of the official manuals to show authenticity.
- 5) Reiki is the pathway to health and happiness. Since Level I builds the most important foundation for all Reiki learners, it has been divided into two phases: one is Introduction/Basic Knowledge, and the other is Level I. Introduction/Basic Knowledge covers the essential core of Reiki and Level I covers the instruction for the practical hand placement treatment. As a Reiki master, encourage your trainees to read Introduction/Basic Knowledge often to refresh their memories. When you order the Level I official manual, Introduction/Basic Knowledge must also be ordered together except in special circumstances.
- 6) For your Gendai Reiki seminars, you must order and give the printed official manual to each one of your trainees. We recommend you to keep few extra manuals readily available in case of an urgent seminar. The official manuals are copyrighted materials and making a photocopy is strictly prohibited without permission from the author, Hiroshi Doi.
- 7) Some Gendai Reiki masters may not know that the official manuals have been renewed and completed. Once you have been informed, you must immediately stop using the old manuals and switch to the new ones. If you keep using the old manuals knowing the newest ones are available, you must not use the name of “Gendai Reiki Ho” for your seminars. “Gendai Reiki Ho (現代靈氣法)” and “Gendai Reiki (現代靈氣)” are trademark registered in both the Japanese Kanji letters and the Roman alphabets.
- 8) The official manuals will not be provided to Gendai Reiki masters who violate the sections 5, 6, and 7 listed above. The seminars held by the masters who violate the sections 5, 6, and 7 above are not recognized as Gendai Reiki Ho seminar.
